

Book Title: Mighty, Mighty Construction Site

Author: Sherri Duskey Rinker

Illustrator: Tom Lichtenheld

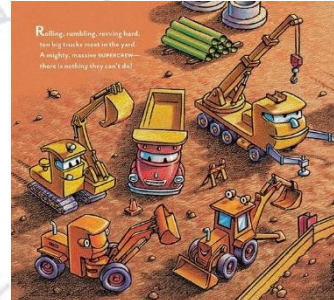

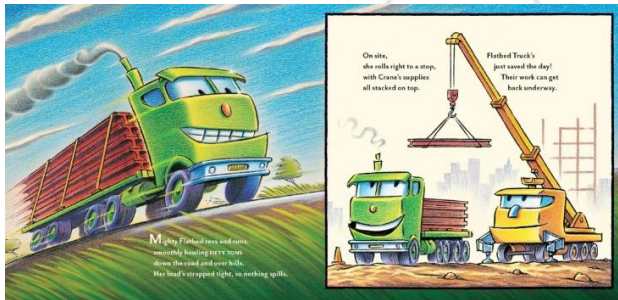

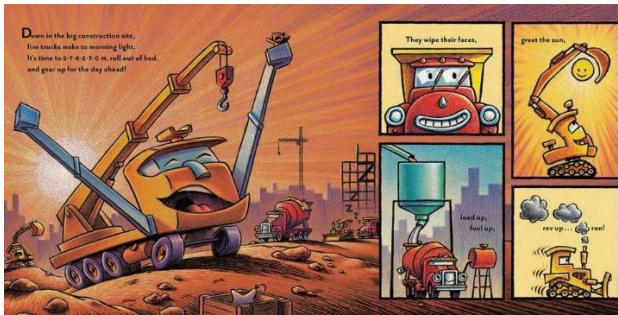

Publisher: Chronicle Books

Book Summary:

At the break of dawn, 5 construction trucks wake to a brand new day and gear up for a new job at the site. They gather together to take a look at the drawing of the biggest building they have ever seen! Quickly, the trucks realize they need more help so they round up their friends. First, bulldozer and skid-steer work together to break the rocks into rubbles and clear the land. Excavators and backhoe then work hand in hand to dig and plant the drainage pipes. Crane truck takes beams off flatbed truck and starts building the skeleton of the building. As time goes by, more and more trucks come to help. With friends' support, they managed to finish the work by the end of the day. The trucks bid farewell, and roll into bed for another adventure the following day.

Recommendation Reasons:

As a companion to the #1 bestseller Goodnight, Goodnight Construction Site, this book is perfect for kids whom are interested in cars and trucks. By using vibrant illustrations and upbeat rhyming text, it encourages young children to read and learn the names of several construction vehicles along with their functions. Furthermore, children learn the importance of a can-do attitude, friendship, and teamwork. No wonder this construction team continues to be a favourite to parents and kids around the world!
